'J. DEWEY' WELCOMES HORNETS

U. N. Posts Won By Students For Conference

Ten delegates and two alternates for the Model U. N. Convention in Berkeley in April were selected by the Convention Committee. The delegates are: Jane Daniels, Marian Schleicher, Leah Alexson, Darlene Vian, Marilyn Tenney, Gordon Burgess, Hamilton Hintz, Jack Sommers, Bob Cooke, and Lewis Wilson. C. J. Robertson is the first alternate and Faye Stimers is the second.

Agenda Plans

Pre-convention agenda for the delegation will include seminars with Dr. Baxter Geeting, Dr. John Motlow, a spring vacation workshop and a dinner meeting given by the International Discussion Group.

Asilomar Meeting

Some of the delegation members plan to attend the Student World Affairs Conference at Asilomar, March 20, 21 and 22. This conference will deal with Latin American problems and will provide background for the Sacramento State delegation which is representing Brazil at the Model U. N.

The Asilomar conference is open to all interested students. Additional information may be obtained from Jane Daniels.

Association Social Schedule Continues With 9p.m. Informal

Sacramento State's Student Association will present "Jack Rabbit Frolic" tonight from 9 to 12. The event, which will be presented in the cafeteria, will feature the music of Bob Mattarola's combo. The dance has been designated as a stag-stagette affair. It is informal with sports clothes as the fashion rule.

Guest of honor for the evening will be John Dewey (Jack) Rabbit. Jack will appear in his dual capacity of oldest resident and newest student. An active individual on campus, Jack has become the center of much student and faculty interest during the past weeks. Stories about his background and suggestions for his care and feeding have been submitted to the Hornet office.

PRICE LISTED

Prices for tonight's Jack Rabbit Frolic, which will feature John Dewey, are 25 cents to those with ASSSC cards and 50 cents to those without. The stag-stagette affair is informal.

Joan Pearce is general chairman of the informal. She has appointed Eleanor Hooper to head the welcome committee and Kaylaine Miller to be chairman of the refreshments committee. Janie Jones will be in charge of the decorations and Glayton Nakagawa will handle the clean-up.

Lola Sergo is chairman of the publicity committee, which includes Mickey Tanner, Doug Aitken, Joan Luce and Vian Robinson.

Suggestions concerning the history, care, housing, feeding and possible wearing apparel for John Dewey and family (if any) are still being considered by Hornet staff members. Bring any you have to room D111. John Dewey waits without.

ASSSC Budget Meets Approval

Final distribution of Student Association Card receipts was completed last week after two Student Council budget sessions. Allotments were approved from recommendations made by the Board of Control. The Spring 1953 budget reads:

Athletics	$1150
Fine Arts	600
Publications	1700
Social Activities	550
Funds	700
Accounting Fee	300
Total	$5000

Due to a decrease in the enrollment of full time students the Student Association budget is $1750 lower than it was for the Spring semester of 1952. Due to this shortage of funds, all activities will be forced to proceed on a minimum program.

"Hasty Heart" Production to Feature Central Staging in Drama Workshop

Central staging will be one of the feature items in the forthcoming production of John Patrick's "The Hasty Heart." The play, which is scheduled for presentation from March 23 through 26, will be produced on a central stage with the audience seated on all sides.

"Hasty Heart" is a story told against the backgrouund of a thatched hut convalescent ward of a temporary British hospital in Southeast Asia. It is an often humorous, sometimes poignant story of a young Scottish lad and those who share his ward during the last weeks of his life.

Reservations Needed

Because of the limited seating in the Drama Workshop on the SSC campus where the produuction will be presented, admission will be by reservation only. Reservations may be obtained from the office of the Division of Humanities and Fine Arts, Room D-212 Douglass Hall beginning on March 16. Reservations are free to those with ASSSC cards and 60 cents to those without.

Cast Members

Members of the cast are Kent Walker, George Costello, John George, Duane Weaver, Gene Wyman, Sondra Chapman, Allen Gray and Walter Murphy.

Production staff members include Beverly Funston, John Berryman, Wayne Shrope, Bob Gisler, R. C. Green, Kaylaine Miller, Mildred Cizmich and Joanne Blomberg.

Group Seeks Help In Lounge Work

In an effort to obtain furniture for the new State College student lounge, students were asked this week if they have any skills in building furniture.

Committee head Helen Silva also said any suggestions for furniture in the lounge should be given her or committee members who include Joan Pearce, Charles Burt or Len Banks.

The lounge is temporarily located in the physics building, room 111, and at present is open at irregular hours.

Bring your ideas concerning the lounge decor and furniture to the Hornet office, Room D111 if you are unable to reach any of the above committee members.

University Women Offer Two Loans

Two loans of up to $500 are available to girls at Sacramento State College, according to Miss Esther C. Caldwell, chairman of the American Association of University Women.

The loans are for girls who are continuing their upper division or graduate studies or who plan to attend other colleges or universities which are on the approved list of the Association.

Women students who are interested in obtaining a loan for either the spring or the fall semester, or for any quarter in an institution which is on a quarterly basis, should apply to Mrs. E. I. Cook, AAUW Executive Secretary of the Sacramento Branch. Mrs. Cook resides at 2676 Sixth Ave., HI 5-1194.

Further information and recommendations may be obtained through Dean Donald W. Bailey or Dr. Lawrence M. Brammer, 230, Administration.

Supper Dance Plans Progress

SSC's Inter-Club Council will present a St. Patrick's Day Supper Dance from 6:30 to 10 p.m. March 17. According to General Chairman Al Villa, food will be served buffet style from 6:30 to 7:50 p.m.

The theme for the dance will be built around the St. Patrick's Day motif. A program of entertainment arranged by Newman Club will be presented at 7 p.m. Dancing will follow the presentation. Bill Rase's combo will provide the music.

Student Association card holders may purchase bids for $1.25. The supper dance will be $1.50 to all others.

Tickets are on sale at the Publications Office, D-111.

The future of our country is bright—history shows thath nations produce their great men in times of adversity.

Council Names New Publications Head

Hornet Editor - in - Chief Mary Farrell was named commissioner of publications at a Student Council meeting this week. Miss Farrell replaces Cotton Johnson, who is now teaching a special education class.

The new commissioner is an English major with a minor in journalism. She was managing editor of The Hornet during the spring semester of 1952 and was co-editor of the student handbook which appeared last September.

College Library to Mark National Week Here

College librarian Mr. Covey disclosed today that the week of March 9 through 13 is National Library Week. Special displays will be featured in State's library to help attract students to the different branches within the building.

Council Approves Amendments

Two constitutional amendments proposed by the Supreme Court were approved by the Student Council this week. According to ASSSC procedures, the proposed amendments will be submitted to the student body vote at a special election within the next two weeks.

The first of the amendments refers to Clause 2, Section 8, Article VI of the Constitution on the subject of duties of the Commissioner of Fine Arts. To date the clause reads: The Commissioner shall see that no student taeks part in a student production when not a member of SSCSA.

The proposed amendment reads: Shall see that no student participates or takes part in a student production if not a member of the ASSCSA except in cases where the Council deems it necessary in the interests of the student body as a whole. The amendment would allow the Student Council, which controls all student card fee funds, to see that the student body benefits without denying any full time student his chance to participate in productions.

The second amendment refers to Section 5, Article IX, which reads: No student may hold more than one elective office, as provided for in this Constitution, concurrently; and to Section 2 of Article VII, which reads: Members of the Supreme Court shall be ineligible for any other office during their terms of office.

The proposed amendments would read as follows: Section 5, Article IX: No student may hold more than one elective office, as provided for in this constitution, except for honor societies, concurrently. Section 2, Article VII: Members of the Supreme Court shall be ineligible for any other office during their terms of office except honorary societies.

Greeting Appears At Psych Meeting

The Psychology Club's guest speaker on March 2 was Dr. Baxter M. Geeting. More than fifty students attended the meeting. Officers will be elected at the next meeting.

Members of Pro Artibus have approved their corrected constitution and it will be presented to the Student Council. Charles Burt reported that the club's cake sale was very successful. The next meeting will be held in the cafeteria on March 16. "Hary The Years," a narrative and vocal recording, will be played.

Leader Deserves Praise

Soon, a blood drive will be underway on the S S C campus. Recognition for the instigator of the event should not pass unheeded. Harry Veale, Korean veteran and Social Science major enrolled at S S C, recently volunteered his blood at the Sacramento Blood Bank. Temporarily rejected because of a recent malaria infection, Veale, undiscouraged, engineered the idea of launching an on-campus drive for blood.

Combat outfits overseas have splendid records for donating their blood to their fellow fighting men. We, at home, should certainly follow their lead with periodic donations of the vita fluid. The Hornet highly commends the attitude of Harry Veale, and strongly urges all students to support the blood drive project.

The Rover Boys

By AL GRAY and BOB McMAHON

Since the price of smokes has gone up, many of the cafeteria crowd have been crying in their coffee. Some of the more impoverished smokers have been sticking toothpicks through the tip of their cigarette butts to add that extra half inch of T-zone pleasure.

A few have even taken to "rolling their own," and others have been seen guiltily sifting ash-trays for discarded tailor-mades with a puff or two left in them. We are now selling bottled smoke-rings to people who can't afford the real thing. We will also swap one slightly tarnished halo for a sack of Bull Durham.

Speaking of cigarette butts, the entrances to Douglass Hall are beginning to look as if they had dandruff. Our campus may not resemble a garden at the present, but we can do a lot to improve its appearance by taking that extra step or two and depositing our cigarette butts in the proper receptacles. We can stop "cigarette dandruff" now—think before you throw, and keep our campus clean.

Oh, Happy Day! Our illustrious Editor is now old enough to indulge at the Alps with the Rover Boys. The Hornet Publications office was a scene of riotious merriment all day Tuesday, as students and faculty members shared Mary's huge cake and joined in with at least 21 choruses of "Happy Birthday." Congrats Mary, and we hope you have mary, many more.

Looks as if the Rover Boys saw the handwriting on the wall last week. We can now say, "We told you so!" This is in reference to the yellow vehicle which turned turtle on H Street, just outside SSC's entrance. Let's all hope we have our J Street Subway as soon as possible; the Highway Patrol is now doing its best under these impeding circumstances to prevent us from attending each other's funerals.

The going is always the best when you are on the level.

These trips are open to anyone who would like to see the designated point of interest. BASS Club membership is not limited to Life Science majors and anyone who is interested is invited to join.

Last Saturday the Geography Club went on their first tour up to Cache Creek to examine rock formations and other phenomena.

If your particular campus club or organization is not included in the Club Notes column, The Hornet will be glad to print information of any club's activities. Deadline is Tuesday at 9 a.m.

Information should be submitted by a designated official of the club and the material should be typed. Stories can be given to Mrs. Sewell personally, or left in her mail box in The Hornet office, room D 111. Douglass Hall.

From past experience, appointment of a regular publicist is the best means of acquiring maximum publicity and coverage.

Committee Meets to Discuss Plans For Spring Blood Drive on Campus

Meeting today at noon in the Conference Room of the Administration Building will be ten students and five instructors to lay plans for a future blood drive on the SSC campus.

It is intended that a mobile blood unit will be available on campus to accept blood from all qualified donors.

Co-chairmen of the committee organizing the drive are Charles McCrory and Harry Veale.

Veale has reminded the student body that the success of the drive depends in great part by individual student cooperation.

"All students interested in the drive are invited to attend today's meeting," Veale announced.

The man who follows another never gets ahead.

TRACKSTERS OPEN SEASON MARCH 13

Sports Corner

By STEVE BAROOSHIAN AND BILL JAMES

The track and field squad is holding full time practices prepping for the season's opener with the California Aggies in Davis on Wednesday afternoon, March 25. The Hornets will have an informal workout with the Sacramento Junior College on Friday afternoon, March 13.

—o—

Dr. Frank B. Jones, track coach, has stressed the need for manpower. The locals are thin in every event. Jones is being assisted by "Mugsy" Annis, former Pacific University quarter miler who is ineligible this season. Annis expects to compete for the Hornets next year.

—o—

Baseball practice began this past week. In the absence of Coach Hal Wolf, practice has been put in the hands of Del Bandy, former Hornet pitcher, who is now a graduate student.

—o—

Athletic officials have hopes that Sacramento State will be able to play its home baseball games on the new campus next spring. All games this season will have to be played in town at one of the local parks.

—o—

Well, maybe Coach Jake Lawlor of Nevada meant what he said after the first two games with Sacramento State. He harped "wait till you come to Nevada." Guess he was right after last weekend.

—o—

Coach Jack Jossi and three members of the Sacramento State tennis team, Eldon Rowe, Paul Willey and Leighton Case, are conducting a series of clinic-exhibitions for the student bodies of the high schools in the region.

—o—

The top all-star Hornet intercollegiate opponent squad this year, in our opinion, would consist of Nevada's Mert Baxter and Fresno's Len Tucker at forwards, Chico's George Maderos at center, COP's Gene Sosnick and Fresno's Bob Kurtovich at guards.

Pasadena Quintet Bumps Wolfmen To Win KC Try

LOS ANGELES.—Pasadena Nazarene College smashed all hopes of Coach Hal Wolf's traveling legion to represent California in the National Athletic Intercolgiate Association at Kansas City.

Fresh from their 56-55 edge over Pepperdine of Los Angeles, the Sacramento five fell 66-48 here Wednesday night to the hot Pasadenans. They will go to Kansas for March 9-13 competition.

Brian Scores

Tom Brian, start center of the Hornets, was held to a slim 16-point total in what Coach termed their "worst game of the season." Pasadena sharpshooter Bob Hopkins took scoring honors with 27 and led his team to victory.

The Hornets won their right to compete in the finals by their Pepperdine win the night previous, and the Nazarene men also had a tough go of it: 68-67 over Whittier college.

Control Ball

Controlled ball handling gave the Hornets their win over Pepperdine. Topping the Hornets was steady Chris Georgis who meshed 17 points, and George Larsen following with 13.

Reno Cagers Drop Hornet Five Twice

State's Hornets invaded Reno last week only to return home with a pair of setbacks suffered at the hands of the Nevada Wolfpack by 67-59 and 61-49 counts.

Saturday's contest saw Nevada forward Bill Cooper rack up 20 markers as Nevada snapped a 29-29 halftime deadlock to forge ahead 49-44 as the third quarter mark ended.

Break Win Streak

Hal Wolf's Hornets lost their sting when their tall boys, Tom Brian and Dick Vinci, were whistled out on five personal fouls in their last five games after running up a 13 game victory streak.

Geyer Paces Locals

Joe Geyer paced Hornet scoring, tanking 16 points. Following Cooper and Geyer in the scoring column was George Larsen with 13 markers.

In Friday's fray, Nevada took an early lead on a Cooper lay-up, fattened it, and coasted to an easy 61-49 victory over the Hornets. Nevada led all the way, and the Hornets never got within five points of the Wolfpack. Chris Georgi paced both squads, bucketing 13 pointers.

There are hundreds of hidden taxes these days—but no place where a taxpayer can hide.

Racketmen Drop SJC In Season's First Try

The Sacramento State tennis men copped their first bout of the season as they dumped Sacramento JC by an 8-0 count last week in a match played on the Jaycee courts. The team looked good in their first match of the season. Meanwhile, contractors are beginning to build four tennis courts on the SSC campus.

Dual Meet With Aggies Initial Test for Hornetmen

State's track and field squad under Dr. Frank B. Jones, will open the 1953 season March 25 in a dual affair with the Cal Aggies in Davis. An informal workout with the Sacramento JC will be held next Friday afternoon, March 13, at Hughes Stadium. The squad will be built around two veterans, half miler Jim Warren, and quarter miler Bob McMahon. Many newcomers will add strength.

Gordy Fong, state junior college broad jump champion while at SJC last season will lead the Hornets into action. Other newcomers include Bob Lynde, transfer from Cal Aggies who will run both hurdle races, Tom Hatheway, quarter miler, Dick Vinci, another quarter miler, Steve Barooshian, sprinter, and Dick Goodell, another hurdler in the running events.

In field events, Coach Jones will have Harry Veale in the weights, Ed Galloway and Ahmed Alie, javelin throwers, Herb Jotter, pole vaulter, Ezio Pedretti, Phil Flynn and Gordon Burgess, high jumpers.

SPORTRAIT:

Guard Proves 'Lifesaver'

This week the spotlight is focused on Joe Geyer, who plays both guard and forward on the Hornet basketball squad.

Geyer ranked fourth this week in the team scoring with a total of 242 points. According to available material, he has tanked 64 out of 125 field goal attempts for a good .512 average.

Geyer has been a life saver for Coach Wolf's cagers this season. In tight spots he has injected many fast buckets to pull his teammates out of danger. His two charity shots in the last five seconds of play, won the tight contest with San Francisco State last month.
